The performance of a probationary employee shall be evaluated at least once during the probationary period. This probationary period may be extended, up to an additional six months, if deemed warranted by the General Manager, after consultation with the Manager of Human Resources.

1.2 PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT

A. Performance Planning and Assessment

Once the probationary period is satisfied, the Manager shall meet with each employee at least once every 12 months to provide feedback on the employee's work performance in the previous year and plan for the upcoming year. The results of this meeting shall be documented and a copy forwarded to the applicable General Manager and the Human Resources Division.

B. Performance Development

In addition to coaching and providing training on an as needed basis, the Corporation may, either as a condition of hiring or for skill development of a current employee, create a performance development plan, which contains specific knowledge or skill development goals within an expressed time frame.

C. Discipline

Haldimand County employees are expected to follow all policies, procedures and practices of the Corporation, as well as to perform work at an acceptable standard, as established by the Supervisor.

Progressive discipline may be used to address performance concerns. Unless unique circumstances warrant, the following progressive disciplinary sequence will be used:

- Coaching Discussion to set performance expectations, confirmed in writing
- Verbal Reprimand, confirmed in writing

Any disciplinary action shall be documented and provided to the employee, with a copy forwarded to the General Manager and the Human Resources Division for placement in the employee's personnel file. An employee shall have the opportunity to respond, in writing, to any disciplinary action and request that a copy be placed in their personnel file. After eighteen (18) months, if there are no related incidents, the employee may request removal of the disciplinary record(s).

Continued employment shall be conditional upon satisfactory performance at any time.

Section 2: Time Spent Working

2.1 SALARY ADMINISTRATION

An employee shall be paid the rate of pay established for the position in accordance with the applicable Non-Union Employee Salary Schedule, as approved by Council from time to time. Employees shall be paid bi-weekly, through direct deposit, in the week following the completion of a pay period.

An employee hired externally shall commence at the start level of the grade for the position.

An employee promoted internally, on a permanent basis, shall commence at the step of the higher paying position that guarantees a 5% increase to their regular hourly rate from the pre-promotion position, but not to exceed the job rate of the higher rated position.

Progression through the steps for the grade shall be on an annual basis, with the exception of part-time employees who shall progress upon working the annual equivalent number of full-time hours. Progression shall be automatic, unless performance is unsatisfactory.

Any exceptions to the above must be approved by the CAO.

An employee in grades 13 and above shall not be eligible for paid overtime or granted the equivalent time off, unless the overtime is due to an Exceptional Circumstance, as outlined below in section 2.3(B). Any additional time required to meet the goals and objectives of the Corporation is compensated by additional vacation entitlement to employees in Grades 13 and above, as outlined in section 3 "Time Away from Work".

An employee shall, on the first day or part day of an illness, and as requested thereafter, report such an illness to their Supervisor. For short term leaves, medical documentation may be requested, if deemed necessary by the Supervisor.

The CAP/COG form must confirm the nature of the medical leave, identify an expected return to work date and any accommodations to facilitate a return to work. Depending on the circumstances of the medical leave, one or more CAP/COG forms may be required. ii) Using Sick Leave Credits

Sick leave credits may be used to provide continuation of wages for personal illness or injury of the employee. Sick leave credits may not be used for absences from work for non-health related or personal reasons, or for illness or medical appointments of other family members or elder care/child care.

Employees are encouraged to book routine medical appointments on days off. Where this is not possible, an employee may utilize banked time, such as flex, vacation or sick leave credits, to accommodate medical and / or dental appointments / treatments.

Medical leave, whether for illness or medical appointments, shall be deducted from an employee's sick leave bank based on the hours absent from work.

iii) Insufficient Sick Leave Credits

An employee who remains incapacitated and has exhausted all sick leave credits may utilize banked time, including flex or vacation banks accumulated up to the date the sick leave credits were exhausted.

Once all banked time has been utilized, an unpaid medical leave may be granted to a maximum of two (2) years, at which time employment may be terminated subject to the provisions of the Ontario Human Rights Code. An employee's vacation entitlement shall be reduced in proportion to the number of working days lost while on an unpaid medical leave.

An employee shall continue their entitlement to certain benefits, as determined by the provider, while using sick leave credits.

Once sick leave credits are exhausted, continuation of any benefits shall be subject to the approval of the provider. The Corporation shall pay the approved benefit premiums for up to sixty (60) calendar days. Beyond sixty days, an eligible employee who wishes to maintain benefit coverage must submit postdated payments for 100% of the full monthly premium costs. If the employee elects not to continue benefits, they will be discontinued and cannot be reinstated during the term of the leave.

v) Recovery of Damages

An employee who recovers damages by way of action or settlement from a third party, may repay to the Corporation a sum so as to restore such employee's sick leave credits to the position in which they were before such related utilization, based on their regular rate of pay at that time.

A permanent employee called for jury selection, jury duty or summoned as a subpoenaed witness shall advise their Supervisor, and shall be paid by the Corporation to ensure no loss of regular earnings for all such time spent. The employee shall remit to the Corporation the full amount of any payment received for such jury or subpoenaed witness duty, excluding expense reimbursement. The Corporation will not reimburse for travel, meals and other expenses incurred during the leave.

If a Supervisor requires an employee on jury duty leave to work additional hours on County business, such time shall be recorded in accordance with Flex Time provisions.

3.6 OTHER LEAVES

A. Pregnancy, Parental or Adoption Leave

An employee may request, in writing, an unpaid extension to a pregnancy, parental or adoption leave, of up to three (3) months, provided the request is received at least one (1) month prior to the end date of the original leave. (4) weeks in advance of such leave, except in emergencies. If the Personal Leave of Absence is approved, the Supervisor shall define the duration and conditions in writing, including reference to any ESA provisions.

An employee who uses a leave of absence for a purpose other than that for which it was granted may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Subject to the provider's approval, an eligible employee on a Personal Leave of Absence longer than sixty (60) days may choose to continue their Extended Health Care, Dental, Life and Accidental Death and Dismemberment insurance coverage. Should the employee wish to maintain this benefit plan coverage, the employee must submit post-dated payment for 100% of the full monthly premium costs of these benefits prior to the start of the leave. 3.7 PREPAID LEAVE PLAN

Prepaid Leave is available to a permanent full-time employee wishing to spread four years' salary over a five-year period, in accordance with the Income Tax Regulations, to enable the employee to take a one-year uninterrupted leave of absence immediately following four consecutive years of salary deferral.

The employee must submit a written application to the Supervisor, for approval by the General Manager, subject to operational requirements. Such application must be submitted at least six months prior to the intended commencement date of the program, stating the intended purpose of the leave.

Approval of the prepaid leave plan shall be subject to the employee entering into a formal agreement with the Corporation. Such agreement shall include, but is not limited to, the following:

- the manner in which the deferred salary is to be held and subsequently repaid to the employee;

All benefits shall be kept whole during the four years of salary deferral.

All deferred salary, plus accrued interest, if any, shall be paid to the employee in accordance with the payment schedule outlined in the prepaid leave plan agreement. Any interest accrued shall be reported annually to the employee, for tax purposes.

During the one-year prepaid leave, vacation and sick leave credits shall not accumulate. Credited service for the purpose of vacation and salary progression shall not accrue during the one-year prepaid leave.

Subject to the insurance company's approval, an employee may choose to continue their Extended Health Care, Dental, and Life insurance coverage. If no election of benefits is made prior to the start of the unpaid leave of absence, benefits will be discontinued and cannot be reinstated during the term of the leave of absence. An employee is not entitled to Long Term Disability Insurance and Accidental Death and Dismemberment coverage during the leave.

The Corporation or the employee may withdraw from the plan at any time, provided three months' written notice is given, except in emergencies. If the Corporation or the employee terminates employment, the deferred salary held by the Corporation plus accrued interest, if any, shall be returned to the employee within a reasonable period of time.

Following the twelve months leave, the employee shall be reinstated to their former position, unless the position has been discontinued, in which case consideration will be given to alternative employment.

A. Permanent Full-time Employee

An employee will become eligible for the following Benefit Plans, after three (3) months of continuous service in a permanent full-time position, unless otherwise approved by the CAO:

- Extended Health Care Plan
- Dental Plan
- Basic Life Insurance Plan
- Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance
- Long Term Disability Insurance

In the event of the death of an active, eligible employee, the Corporation shall pay the cost of continuing the enrolment of the eligible dependent(s) of the deceased employee in the Extended Health Care and Dental Plan, in accordance with the terms of the Plan, for twelve (12) months after the date of death or the date that the dependent is no longer considered eligible, as determined by the insurer, whichever is the earliest.

Optional Life Insurance is available to an employee and/or an employee's spouse, subject to approval of evidence of insurability. The cost of optional life insurance is 100% paid by the employee and is deducted from their pay.

Benefit coverage will terminate when the employee reaches age sixty-five (65). An employee who reaches the age of 65 years, up to and including 71 years, who would otherwise be eligible for health and insured benefits will instead be eligible for:

- Extended Health Care and Dental Plans identical to that provided to other Non-Union employees, or equivalent, with the following exceptions:
 - The employee will no longer receive prescription drug benefits for drugs ordinarily covered by the Ontario Drug Benefit (ODB) Plan or any successor thereto;
 - Any annual deductible and/or co-payment required under the ODB pay is the responsibility of the employee
- A non-taxable life insurance benefit in the amount of $10,000.00 payable to the Employee's estate or designate, in the event that the employee dies prior to termination or retirement.

Early Retirement Benefits

In the case of retirement prior to age sixty-five (65), the Corporation shall continue to pay the premiums for Extended Health Care and Dental Plans, as well as Basic Life Insurance coverage, based on the individual employee's coverage in effect at the date of retirement, until the employee reaches age sixty-five (65), if an employee:

- is fifty-five (55) years of age or older,
- has been an active employee for at least 5 years with Haldimand County, and
- is currently collecting an unreduced early retirement under the OMERS pension plan.

Should the early retiree elect not to continue participation in the Extended Health Care or Dental Plan at the time of retirement, they shall not be eligible to re-enroll at a later date.

The coverage provided to early retirees, or their surviving spouse/dependents, shall be the same coverage provided to active members of the Non-Union group.

While in receipt of the above early retirement benefits, should a retired employee die prior to age sixty-five (65), the employee's eligible dependent(s) shall receive such benefits until the date at which the deceased employee would have turned age sixty-five (65) or the date that the dependent is no longer considered eligible, whichever is the earliest.

B. Part-time / Temporary Employee

After 400 hours worked, a permanent part-time employee shall receive, as a payment in lieu of Benefit Plans, 12.5% of all regular earnings. This payment in lieu shall be reduced by 6%, if enrolled in OMERS.

A temporary employee (including a student) is not entitled to enrolment in the Benefit Plans, or a payment in lieu of Benefits Plan, unless otherwise indicated in the employment agreement.

Section 5: Dispute Resolution

5.1 COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

In a situation where a dispute arises over the interpretation or application of any provision in this policy or any other employment matter, the CAO, or designate, shall adjudicate with the decision binding on all concerned.

An employee having cause for complaint shall first discuss the matter with their Supervisor within ten (10) working days of the occurrence giving rise to the complaint. The Supervisor shall investigate and discuss the concern with the employee within ten (10) working days of receipt of the complaint. If, within this time frame, there is no response, or the response from the General Manager is not considered appropriate, the employee may submit their concern, in writing, to the CAO. The CAO, on receipt of an employee's written concern, shall conduct an investigation into the complaint, and respond, in writing, to the employee and the General Manager.
